Dear Ladies and Gentlemen

From today 11/02/2019 10Byte exists as a business entity.

It was created expecting to stand next to those who will trust us with reliability and consistency, offering high quality services.

Simplicity, Flexibility, Innovation, and Economy are our basic principles on which we are launching this new business venture.

With many years of experience in IT, selected and established partners, but also young professionals, we hope to be able to meet the expectations of those who will trust us.

Yours Sincerely

John P. Stivaktas
